Why you are nominating this person for this position

James has extensive knowledge, experience and expertise in digital marketing professionally, and a love of local grass roots rugby making him a great candidate.
James has only recently joined out club but has really made a difference with his ideas and has instantly put ideas into motion and the results have been fantastic.
I know that James has done similar work with other Northumberland clubs who have benefitted massively from his work.
James is committed, hard working and has a proven track record not only within general digital marketing but also with rugby marketing and sponsorship, making him a brilliant candidate for the above mentioned roll within Northumberland Rugby Union. He would undoubtably be a huge success and a valuable asset to any company, firm or body who he works with.

Why you are nominating this person for this position

James owns his own digital marketing business and did a fantastic job running Seghill rugby club's social media where his graphic design really helped professionalise our offering. James also worked to create a website for my sister's business, she was ecstatic with the final product and has helped drive business since going live. He has always been a pleasure to work with and would fit well in any organised team.

I wholeheartedly believe James, with his wealth of knowledge and experience, would be an asset to the Northumberland RFU leadership team.
